exclusively look into copyright infringement cases. Copyright enforcement cells have been set up in most of the States/Union Territory administrations headed by a senior police officer to deal with such matters.

The Committee for Development of the Entertainment Sector, set up by this Ministry as a result of the deliberations of the 24th State Information Ministers Conference (SIMCON), has also recommended formulation of appropriate training modules for police officers to train them for anti-piracy work. To create an anti-piracy mind-set, this Ministry has recently brought together representatives of the film producers, multi-service operators and cable operators who have jointly resolved not to exhibit films without valid permission from the copyright holders.
